02.02.2025 Notes by Pastor Ashley Dodson
Marc and Ceitci Demirkova-Haper
 Amazed by faith or amazed by unbelief
 Thaumazo- to be amazed, to be astonished, to be in awe
 Luke 7:1-9
 Jesus was amazed at the faith of this man. – Faith
 Mark 6:1-5
 Many who heard Him were amazed and Jesus was amazed at their unbelief. – Unbelief
 Are we amazing God with our faith or with our unbelief?
 We have become unbelieving believers. Becoming lukewarm.
 How do you wake up and challenge yourself everyday.
 Am I full of faith today, should be asked daily.
 It is our choice to activate faith in our lives or not.
 Faith is lost when you think you have to understand God before you can trust Him.
 Doubt is the first sin that showed up in the garden. We question God and don't fully trust Him.
 The same Jesus is in both crowds in these scriptures but the crowds responded differently.
 Has Jesus become so familiar to us we don't acknowledge Him as God in our lives.
 We are trying to amaze people and all the while he is not being amazed by our faith.
 Satan does not try to destroy your faith, he just tries to insert doubt.
 Luke 7:7 Trust that one word from Jesus is enough to change everything.
 Trust and Faith are action words.
 Radical faith is not only rooted in trust and action that asks us to give up something.
 Underground church learn only how to witness to those who are "Helping hands reaching out, doing God's work."

Please remind those that might benefit from this awesome ministry in our town!!! Find out if they might need someone to take them.

taking them to be martyred.

Slow down and live a little bit more.

Take time to let your soul catch up, stop the rush and find Jesus in the moment.

Radical faith brings the next generation with us in what God is doing.

With one word his servant was healed, Immediately the centurion fell down to worship.
