04.20.25 Resurrection Sunday Notes by Pastor Ashley Dodson

Pastor Joseph

Mark 16:1-8

The Sabbath had passed, very early the went to anoint the body of Jesus. The stone had been rolled back. An angel standing to the side announcing he is not there.

They were alarmed, do not be afraid. "See the place where they laid Him."

They expected their Savior to be where they left Him, crucified. Salvation is for all!

Jesus had been telling them about the resurrection.

Jesus was not in the place or the form, his disciples thought he should be when they got there.

With their questioning and fear, the angel told them, "He told them He will see them in Galilee."

They all struggled to believe he would raise from the dead.

At his arrest, the disciples are betraying, fighting, and denying Him.

He told them ahead of time but walking it out, there was a real struggle.

Jesus is not detoured by our inconsistencies, we need Him to be able to follow Him!

The women were prepared to minister to a crucified, dead Messiah. They were faithful but were behind.

There's a blessing that comes even when you don't get it.

Wrestling with hopelessness. Keep doing the next right and faithful thing.

The were surprised by the resurrection.

You will be surprised by His goodness.

He's not done being good to YOU!

Go tell the disciples and Peter! Jesus plans on not leaving you out.

They had an appointment with the resurrected Christ!
The resurrection disrupted their grief and disappointment, and gave them hope for the future!
If Jesus is telling you something but you don't agree with Him, He's not the one who's wrong.
He's got an appointment with you on the other side of your shame.
If the dead is not raised we are men most miserable.
Our God gives life to the dead.
He can make you new! He can take your life and turn it into whatever He chooses.
We have a tendency to act like He's still dead and live a defeated life. There is resurrection life beyond the cross.
Righteousness, Peace, and Joy in the Holy Spirit!
There is hope for the future and hope for eternal life!
He may just not look like what you think He should, when He shows Himself to you the next time.

I'm just kind of wondering, is it worth my time to do this puzzle each week? Is anyone even reading this in the newsletter? Let's see. The 1st 5 people who bring me (or Kathy) this printed, completed, puzzle this coming Sunday (April 27), to the sound booth BEFORE THE 2-MINUTE COUNTDOWN BEGINS will get a full-size Snicker bar. After that we will have little bars. There are no age limits or family limits. ONLY limits are: to this Sunday only AND ends when the 2-Minute Countdown starts in the sanctuary. I'll see who reads this.

During our Thursday morning prayer time we have corporately been reading through the book of Acts in preparation for the season of Pentecost and the coming ministry of Scott & Louada Coon June 5-8, 2025!
